

GOLDIN IS CHOSEN GRAND COMMANDER

RESIDENT OF JANESVILLE HIGHLY HONORED.

Elected to the Highest Office in Knight Templary—Has Had a Distinguished Career in the Army and Wears a Medal Conferred by Congress For Notable Bravery.

The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the state of Wisconsin, in session at Milwaukee, has honored a citizen of Janesville by electing him to the highest office in its gift. Yesterday Col. Theodore W. Goldin, of this city, was chosen grand commander of the state. No citizen of Janesville has ever been thus honored.

Col. Goldin is one of the most highly esteemed residents of this section of the state. He has been a Knight Templar for many years, and by virtue of his high official standing in Janesville Commandery became entitled in 1890 to a seat in the grand commandery. He has been an officer in that body ever since.

Was With Custer

Besides his high rank in Templary Col. Goldin has attained to distinction in other lines. He was an aide-de-camp on Gen. Custer's staff just preceding the historic massacre. As Custer's men were about to enter the pass in which the massacre took place, the general turned to Theodore Goldin, with a note which the latter was directed to deliver to Major Reno, whom he called upon for aid. Goldin turned about and rode away on this mission, and to this he attributes the fact that he is alive today.

A Medal for Bravery.

To return alone through an enemy's country was an act of bravery that the same doughty soldier duplicated on another occasion, when he and three others secured water for the soldiers on that hot, blistering summer's day in 1876, when Reno's command lay on a Big Horn butte, besieged by 3000 Indians. For this feat he was awarded a bronze medal by congress. No one except the fellow members of the company he was with knew of his brave act until March 30, 1896, when Gen. Joseph B. Doe, then assistant secretary of war, presented the medal in the municipal court at Janesville. Mr. Goldin had never spoken of it to anyone, but one day he was called to the municipal court of Janesville as a witness in a suit. The clerk put him under oath, and then Gen. Doe arose to examine the witness. One or two questions identified Col. Goldin as the brave private of Custer's "Fighting Seventh," and the general presented him, in the name of the president, with a bronze medal having upon it the following inscription:

"To Theodore W. Goldin of Troop G, Seventh United States Cavalry, for most distinguished gallantry at the Little Big Horn river, Montana, July 26, 1876."

A Brave Deed

It was while besieged on the Big Horn butte with Reno's men that Mr. Goldin, then a raw recruit, volunteered with three others to obtain water for the thirsting soldiers. The four men went down the butte with a big kettle between them. When they returned to camp, the kettle was riddled with bullets and the soldiers would still have been without water but for the fore thought of the volunteers, who had slung several canteens over their shoulders. Mr. Goldin's comrades had been decorated many years before he was presented with a medal.

Col. Goldin is a successful practicing lawyer in Janesville. He has served several terms and is at present clerk of the courts of Rock county, and has held the same office in Green county while residing in Monroe. He has served as inspector of small arms practice of the Wisconsin National guard, with rank of colonel and two years ago was sergeant-at-arms of the republican state nominating convention.

KIDD IS DECLARED TO BE GUILTYLESS

END OF FAMED CONSPIRACY
CASE AT OSHKOSH.

Labor Leader is Found Not Guilty by the Jury After an Hour's Deliberation—Brief Review of the Trouble Leading to the Prosecution of His Case.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 3.—Thomas I. Kidd, George Zentner and Michael Trolber, accused of conspiracy to injure the business of the Paine Lumber company, of this city, during the recent woodworkers' strike, were acquitted in the municipal court yesterday afternoon. The jury was out about an hour.

The trial, which lasted two weeks, was followed with great interest throughout this country and Canada by union labor men and manufacturers. It was the second of its kind, the only other one being that in which Eugene V. Debs was defendant, and which was part of the sequel of the great A. R. U. strike of 1894.

The woodworkers' strike here last summer lasted thirteen weeks and involved 1,600 men. Mr. Kidd, as secretary of the International Woodworkers' Union, was to a large extent director of the strike, while Zentner was captain of the pickets and Trolber was a picket. The case of the defendants rested largely upon the legality of the practice of picketing which the state maintained amounted to conspiracy, but which the defense contended was in itself innocent and lawful. The responsibility of the labor organizations for the riots, one of which resulted fatally, was also debated. It was contended by the defense that conviction meant the end of strikes, and the impairment of the effectiveness of labor organizations.

Mr. Kidd had this to say about the meaning of his acquittal:

"The verdict means that organized labor has not only the right to strike, but the right to picket the establishment involved so long as the pickets refrain from violating the law. The verdict is a blow at the idea that man has no right to moral suasion upon those who take the position of strikers."

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The transport Peru, which has arrived from Manila, brought fifteen soldiers and sailors, including a number of officers. The few that were sick on the departure of the vessel are now nearly recovered. Col. John R. Bratt of First Nebraska is an exception. He is seriously ill with gastritis and was confined to his bed during the voyage.

Color Sergeant Palmer and many of the volunteer officers say that as soon as it becomes evident that this country will hold the Philippines they will send in their resignations. When the Peru left Manila there were 1,500 sick among the men, and the physicians were terribly dismayed at the progress that smallpox was making. According to Palmer, in one day there were ten deaths from smallpox. Capt. Linn said he knew of but five deaths from that disease in a single day. The filth poured into the canals by the Chinese was said to be a prolific source of disease.

PEACE IS OAR AWAY.

Negotiations at Paris Are Likely to Be Abandoned Friday.

London, Nov. 3.—The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post says: "It is expected that a rupture of the peace negotiations between the United States and Spain will be officially announced on Friday. The feeling here is that the attitude of the Spaniards is irrational, in view of the financial proposals of the United States, and that they may ultimately regret having failed to agree quickly with the adversary."

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: "The Spanish commissioners cannot be surprised, neither can the Spanish government, by America's decision to take the Philippines. Possibly the Spanish people were not prepared for it and the commissioners are pretending surprise so that the government may be better able to face public opinion. Certainly everybody outside of Spain must have understood that the archipelago was lost to Spain."

The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says: "Russia and another power are credited with the intention of intimating to Washington that the annexation of the Philippines must be preceded by a common agreement on future action in certain circumstances."

PREDICT SWEEPING VICTORY

Bank Examiner Rogers, of Madison, Here on Business

J. H. Rogers, of Madison who is interested in state bank examining work, was in the city today looking after the two local loan associations, not that they need looking after, but because the law requires it.

In speaking of the coming election Examiner Rogers, who has traveled the state of late from one end to the other, says that nothing short of a sweeping Republican victory is in sight. The campaign has been a quiet one for both parties, he says, but more noticeably is this so with the democrats, who seem to lack enthusiasm in nearly every city.

QUARLES SCORES THE DEMOCRATS

ELOQUENT MILWAUKEE ATTORNEY SPEAKS HERE.

Shows Up the Record of the State Democracy—Trying to Attain Power on a Dead Issue—Candidate Sawyer's Anomalous Position—Reform in the Tax Laws.

The Opera House was well filled last night when Hon. J. V. Quarles, of Milwaukee, appeared to discuss the political questions before the people. There was a large admixture of ladies in the audience and the fair ones manifested as great an interest in the address as did their masculine companions.

It was very late when the assembly was called to order. Janesville and Jencas are always late in putting in an appearance but when they get there they stay. The Imperial band played a couple of selections while the crowd was being seated. Then Hon. Ogden H. Fothergill introduced the speaker as a man he had known and esteemed for many years—one of the manifest men he had ever known. If the legislature about to meet should choose Mr. Quarles to a seat in the United States senate, Mr. Spooner would have a colleague of whom he would have no occasion to feel ashamed.

The Same Old Silver Issue.

Mr. Quarles began his address in a low tone of voice, scarcely audible to those nearly under the footlights, and much of what was said throughout was lost to the majority, for although every one present paid strict attention to what he said his voice was lost to many. He began by referring to the policy of the democrats, who pursued the course of the criminal lawyer with no adequate defense for his client, who always turned about and abused the lawyer on the other side. Their platform declared that silver was yet the issue, although the republicans had buried that issue two years ago, but their orators ignored the platform entirely and said state management was in review. He would devote a short time to the question of silver. He was warm in his praise of the sound money democrats who refused to be dictated to by "Bloody Biddles," Waite, "Pitchfork" Tillman and the others of their ilk. He paid a tribute to Edward S. Bragg, and alluded to him as "that little grizzled general, who has shown himself a hero in both war and peace and who was never known to flinch in any cause that he knew to be right." Mr. Quarles said that the free silver heresy was killed two years ago and this year it was proposed to elect enough republicans to see that it was forever buried. But, he said, the democrats knew what the people of Wisconsin thought of Bryan and Altgeld and Jones and "Coin" Harvey, and the rest of free silver shouters, and so the war cry of "Jim" O'Connor and "Ed" Wall was: "State issues, posh state issues to the fore and say nothing about the money question."

Personalities in the Campaign.

Mr. Quarles said the democrats were trying to make the campaign turn on the pivot of personalities. Look, they said, at Gov. Scofield, and note the mistakes he has made. You know Bob Ingersoll said that Moses made mistakes. He continued: "No, my friends, they have no cause in court, and they are trying to make the great popular jury return a verdict in their favor by lambasting the other side and diverting attention from the real issues and their own iniquities. Gov. Scofield is a man of probity and honor. He has served his country in war with valor. He has been a statesman in peace, and his administration will compare more than favorably with the four years of the Peck regime."

Sawyer's Dodging

The speaker referred to Candidate Hiram W. Sawyer. He had not given the people of Wisconsin one word as to his position upon the silver question. He dared not take the stump and tell the intelligent people of the state that he favored the coinage of a 50-cent dollar. Mr. Quarles characterized Judge Sawyer as the "Sphinx of this campaign who looking out on the sand hills of the democratic desert, speaks not."

Mr. Quarles said that Judge Sawyer was a free silver man; that he could not have secured the democratic nomination if he had not supported Bryan in 1896. His election would be a haunt to President McKinley, an endorsement of flatism, and a tacit admission that Wisconsin was wrong two years ago, when by over 100,000 plurality, Bryanism was repudiated and the standard of honest money lifted on high.

The Question Of Passes

The speaker next referred to the matter of railroad passes. He said the system was a great burden upon the state. It was class legislation; it was discriminating in favor of the office holders. This system had cost Wisconsin thousands of dollars. It prolonged sessions of the legislature, it was corrupting, it was vicious. The democrats were raising a great hue and cry and making pledges to abolish the evil if given a chance. But the people knew that the democrats had had a chance. What did they do? Why more passes were issued than ever before in the history of the Wisconsin legislatures. The republican convention had adopted a platform that would be followed to the letter and it promised a sweeping reform in this direction.

Equalization of Taxes.

Mr. Quarles referred to the system of tax dodging so prevalent in the state, and made a strong plea for the equalization of taxation so that the rich as well as the poor shall be compelled to pay their share of the burden. The poor man's cow was taxed, but the rich man's bonds and mortgages escaped the eye of the assessor. This was another reform to which the republican party was pledged. It was an important reform. The very existence of our democratic form of government was at stake.

"We are making anarchy," said Mr. Quarles, "tolerating a system that permits the demagogue to stir up class prejudice by saying that the rich are robbing the poor. Change our system of taxation, make every man pay his proportionate share of the expenses of government and you will take the bludgeon out of the hands of the blatant shouters who are constantly stirring up strife."

In closing Mr. Quarles urged that every republican go to the polls next Tuesday. It was not an off year in politics. Some of the most important questions that had arisen in the United States since the formation of the constitution were confronting the nation.

TRIBUTE TO YEARS PASSED IN HONOR

POETIC OFFERINGS AT CONANT GOLDEN WEDDING.

H. C. Tilton Pays Homage to An Aged Couple Whose Life Has Been Well Spent and Conveys a Lesson Worth Learning—Beautiful Poem by Mrs. D. F. Wilcox.

At the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Conant, held last week, Mr. H. C. Tilton, formerly of this city, but now the editor of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil, read the following poetic tribute to the venerable couple: Each milestone reached as we do journey on, Has its own marking and each a lesson won.

When childish feet first press the dewy green Where shady lanes leads from the cottage door And dimpled fingers touch the graven lines, By which old time has marked a birthday come and gone.

We strive to spell the words we cannot understand, Then turn from graver thought to lighter play again. What matters it how ticks the clock or strikes the hour While the nests are building and the birds are singing, And all the world is turned to melody and joy?

When youthful feet first turn from shady lane, And leave the cottage for the highway broad, And dewy green is lost in dusty path, One glance at the record on the stone Which marks the turning, but fails to read its meaning.

For hope is strong, the sky is bright, and nature yet is singing, And so youth journeys on with music in its heart, Until it hears another voice, and answering soft,

Seeming at first an echo, then forming a duet, The voice is leading guide a sweeter harmony to life. And glancing with a smile of confidence and love At milestones marked with heart and Cupid's arrow.

The two go singing on their way together. A little further down the happy way, The two stop for a moment in a cosy bower, And there a twig is plucked, then on they go, Until still further down the path a bud is seen, And hand of love, quick gathers 't, and on they go.

Their hearts still blending in the song of joy, Mingling thanks for the past with future hope. But dusty grows the path and weary are the feet.

The way seems longer and the hills more steep, But love gives courage and hope gives speed, And milestones after milestones thus is passed, While as at each they stop a moment to look back.

And then to view anew the path before, They read the old, old truth, but ever new in form, And learn that God is love and doeth all things well.

And now they reach one golden in his hue, Gathering its wealth of color from the setting sun. And from the broadening fields of harvest time, And pausing to look backward and then beyond They see the pathway passed and yet to come. Is all aglow with the same golden light.

Far, far behind, in modest cottage by the lane, It flickers in the little candle on childhood's birthday cake. It glows upon the fruitage in the orchard old, Where youthful hand reached up to pluck and eat.

It glimmers on the ring with which love pledged its troth, It shimmers in the locks of fair-haired son and daughter. And those of children's children, and so through-out the past.

The golden ring of heaven's own wealth of love Has marked the pathway all along, And as they look beyond it brighter grows Until it forms a city made of gold.

The dust, the heart, the weariness of burden, The worries and the cares, 'on all of these, Have made the gold the purer and removed the dross.

And so all else may be forgot As wealth of golden blessing marks the way From where its fondly ray beams from the cottage in the lane.

Cherishing fond memory as it glances back, To where its glory blazes amid mansions fair, Gladdening the faith which looks beyond the veil.

The twig plucked in the quiet bower Has changed into a stalwart staff On which the weary form may lean secure. The bud into a plant has grown, Giving restful shade and loving shelter, While other blossoms add to beauty and to joy Their helplessness and happiness entwined the golden stone.

And strength and gentleness stand ready guides To make the journey onward easier still. The golden blessings which have marked the way, From flickering candle on the childish birthday cake.

To the ripened fruitage of life's harvest-time, Have not been grasped with greedy hand, Nor used for selfish end or purpose mean. These lovers true, with tender clasp of hand, Giving to each the best that each possessed, Have with the other hand along the pathway strewn Smiles, flowers, songs and blessings rare, To make the lives of others happy too. The wealth of joy to them by Father given They've gladly shared with others of his children.

And grateful hearts not of their kith and kin, Save as the great Father makes them so, Bid joyous greeting with hopes and prayers, That from this milestone golden, more glorious yet.

May be their pathway, until the setting sun Flings open wide the portals of the golden city, And bids them enter in to share the golden treasures of the King.

In the greetings from Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Wilcox, of Quincy, Ill., was the following poem by Mrs. Wilcox:

How gladly would we trail again, The old remembered places, Sit down beside your hearth once more, And look in the dear faces.

And thank you for the lessons, Your fifty years are teaching, For honest lives that louder speak Than half our noisy preaching.

With fifty years between you, And your yet kept wedding vow, The "Golden Age," old friends of ours Is not a fable now.

And, sweet as has life's vintage been, Through all your pleasant past, Still, as at Canada's marriage feast, May the best win be the last.

COMBINATION BALL TEAMS

Janesville and Edgerton May Fix Up a Deal Soon

George Wilbur, manager of the Edgerton base ball team, was in the city yesterday greeting local friends. He says that a movement is now on foot for organizing a base ball team that will be composed of Edgerton and Janesville players, and which will be in the field next season as an Edgerton-Janesville team supported by the two towns. The idea is to play in Edgerton on Saturdays and in Janesville on Sundays. Other time during the week would be filled in by playing different teams through the west. The idea is a taking one and the deal may soon be closed.

Ever notice the base in a Favorite Base Burner?

Not particularly?

If you did you would find it a third larger than in any other stove with same size fire pot.

Why, if you should place the ash pan of any other stove in a Favorite ash pan it would be lost. Ash pans are made to fit the base, you know.

Every manufacturer tries to get as much radiating surface on his stove as possible, without spoiling the proportion. We have at least one-third more radiating surface on the Favorite base burner.

Radiating surface is heating surface.

The more heating surface you have on the stove the less coal it burns—the less you have to force your stove. Saves coal, saves stove, save money.

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT

William McKinley, President and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, represents today honest money and the credit, prosperity and progress of the country as much and more than he did in the memorable campaign of 1896.

Stand by the president in every state in the Union! Vote for men who will vote to sustain him! Vote for republican candidates for congress, and for republican members of legislatures that will elect United States senators! Vote for every candidate identified with the president's party!—N. Y. Sun.

IT IS EASILY EXPLAINED

The Madison Journal—"The Two Rivers Chronicle makes this deceptive remark:

"Republicans are finding that it is no easy task to satisfactorily explain that two million dollars increase in state taxes."

"No trouble at all to explain the increase in taxation. It has been repeatedly and completely explained in these columns within the past few weeks. The official figures have been given. There are two reasons why there has been an increase. One is, that an unusual amount has been expended in the building of new and necessary public institutions, such as the Superior normal school, the school for the feeble-minded at Chippewa Falls, the intermediate prison at Green Bay, and the state historical library in this city. The other reason is, that the state had run largely in debt, had borrowed money from the trust funds, from the railroads and banks with which to meet expenses instead of levying a tax. The democrats failed to pay their bills and left an empty treasury. These are the reasons why state taxes have been increased. But we call the attention of the Chronicle to the fact the bills and borrowed money having been all paid up and the state put upon a business basis, owing to the good judgment of Gov. Scofield, that the state tax this year is reduced over half a million dollars and if this wise policy of paying as we go is continued hereafter, taxes will continue to be much lower than they have necessarily been for the past few years."

GEN. HARRISON'S ADVICE.

Benjamin Harrison in a letter to the Republican Chairman of Indiana expressing regret that he cannot take a speaking part in the campaign, says: "It would be an unpleasant thing to contemplate it, while in the enjoyment of the fruits of that victory, any of those who supported the cause of sound money in 1896 should now, either from lethargy or pique or through the influence of minor questions, be led either actively or passively to give their aid to the revival and perpetuation of this disturbing influence."

"Our election results should not give, or even seem to give, encouragement to those who would find in our discords and divided counsels, their advantage."

And now it is proposed to prosecute the boys who had fun on Halloween. The boys who threw the baled hay into the street should undoubtedly be fined $5,000 and costs, and sent to prison for life. The boys who tipped over the salt barrels should be quartered and drawn; and all others should be hanged on general principles. Next to the outrages that were perpetrated at the polls until they were stopped by the swearing in of large force of special police, and a public proclamation by the mayor, the most crying abuses in this city are the work of the bloodthirsty lads who throw beans and corn on Halloween. Down with the boys! They are young animals and should be kept in cages, day and night, until they get big enough to be lynched.

In a speech at Sheboygan Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee, attacked President McKinley and belittled Lieut. Hobson's heroic act in sinking the Merrimack at Santiago. His words so disgusted the audience that many people left the hall. Mayor Rose should not judge others by himself. The democrats of Wisconsin are Americans first and politicians afterward. Rose, however, puts politics above the flag.

The democratic ring is now devoting its energies to booming the ring assembly candidate. The reason is apparent—the ring wants a United States senator who will vote for free silver. This fact alone will result in the overwhelming defeat of the ring's candidate.

Eight thousand people cheered Senator Foraker at Minneapolis when the senator declared that he favored expansion.

The American peace commission has put a time limit on Spain and the business must be completed this week.

Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee, will get himself "egged" by a democratic audience if he doesn't change his tactics.

Milwaukee bettors give odds that Gov. Scofield will have 25,000 plurality, but can find no takers.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

Which Is Better, Try An Experiment Or Profit by a Janesville Citizen's Advice?

Something new is an experiment. Must be proven to be as represented. Be successful at home or you doubt it.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of a friend is. Now, supposing you had a bad back. A lame weak or aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will hear of many so-called cures.

But they come from far away places. Its different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove that it is so.

House endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case: Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St., journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of a gripe some time ago, and as the result of this sickness a weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, and annoying me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep at night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agent for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's and take no substitute.

Lowell is the leading Hardware and Stove dealer in Southern Wisconsin.

If you are liable to forget the foregoing fact even with the help of the reminder in your bonnet drop along the street commonly and somewhat vulgarly known as the "Midway"—South River Street—any time of day or evening and be thoroughly convinced by sight seeing.

We are Blowing Our Own Horn!

In these days of hot competition it behooves the progressive merchant to do a little tooting on his own hook. Some do too much on too little backing; others do but on a good lot of backing. We do a good deal and have plenty of good sound stuff to shout loudly on.

Hard to Beat

this Stove collection; in fact, impossible to equal or beat. If you could in any way find an objection in one Stove one of the others will satisfy you in every way.

Top of the Heap

we have been in this season. We prepared for a windfall, and—well—we "got" it. Buyers were more than plentiful. The more Stove purchasers looked the field over the more they became convinced of our Stove efficiency. Stove buying is not over by any means and we are pleased to say we are as well prepared today to suit all comers as at any time.

A Pointer

about prices—There has always been one great secret about our rapid Stove selling and general good business. Not a secret either—just low prices even with the high qualities of our goods. We don't believe in bleeding our customers; business is not all done in a day or a year.

It is possible to sell once at high prices but it don't go more than once. Our record of over thirty years of increasing hardware and stove business is clear from high prices. Lowell is never undersold. TIN WORK, did you say? We can do it in a hurry. Plenty of men, plenty of tools, and plenty of desire to catch your trade.

MORE FOOT BALL PROFESSIONALISM

NOTHING NEW IN CHICAGO-WISCONSIN CONTROVERSY

Records of the Protested Players Will be Looked Into—Holmes, the Wisconsin Tackle, is Under Suspicion—Cavanaugh Has Made a Study Record and May Play.

According to the Chicago Inter-Ocean nothing new developed yesterday in the charges filed against the University of Chicago football players by the University of Wisconsin. Clark was out on the field in uniform and coached Henry and Captain Kennedy in handling the ball for place kicks but did not line up with the team.

The case of Rogers seems to be badly mixed up affair and will hardly be straightened out before the athletic board meets Friday afternoon. While Rogers admits playing in the Minnesota game in 1894, he had signed a statement from M. J. Lunn that Lunn and not Rogers played against Harding, the Minnesota guard, as was set forth in the charges of Wisconsin. Dr. Hollister, the ex-Beloit coach, also states that he is perfectly eligible under the rules and Stagg also believes he is. The cases against the other men have not materialized, and nothing was said about them in the formal charges sent to Dr. Harper by the Wisconsin board. The story that Herschberger would be protested is pronounced a fake.

Stagg has made no move in regard to a protest against Holmes, the Wisconsin tackle. A man prominent in athletics at the 'varsity said yesterday that he had been informed by an ex-captain of one of the best teams the cardinal ever had that was a well known fact at Wisconsin that Holmes was a professional wrestler. If this statement can be credited some action by Chicago will result.

It was rumored yesterday that Cavanaugh might participate in the Wisconsin game on Nov. 12. According to the rules he must do satisfactory work in the university for six months after his failure to keep up his class work. This time expires on Nov. 11, and as the husky center is anxious for a chance at the cardinal his wishes will probably be gratified. Speed will then be moved to guard and Rogers to a tackle position. If Gardner takes Clarke's place the maroons will present a stronger team against Wisconsin than they have lined up this year.

HYMEN'S KNOT IS TIED

Two Pleasant Matrimonial Events Celebrated Last Evening

Last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lowry, 57 Washington street, Miss Grace Maud Powry and Francis Harris Coulter were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Edward H. Pence, of the Presbyterian church. Some sixty relatives and invited guests were present. White cañations formed the decorations of the parlors, where the ceremony was performed and smiles and cut flowers added to the charming effect. Miss Emmaline Lowry, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and William S. Coulter, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the party partook of an elegant luncheon prepared for the occasion.

Both parties to the contract are well known here. The bride has been a resident of Janesville since infancy. The groom hails from Emerald Grove, and is in the employ of the Chicago & North-Western road. The young couple left last evening for a brief wedding trip to Madison. They will take up their residence in Chicago.

Among those from out of the city who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Schuler Spear, Miss Franc Spear and Mr. Burdette Spear, of Chester, Ia., Dr. Wm. Wray, now of Jacksonville, Fla., Miss Mattie Lowry, of Chicago, Miss Lilly Stockman, of Milton Junction, Mrs. M. S. Morley, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spear, of Brooklyn, Wis.

A magnificent floral horseshoe was erected in the parlor beneath which the marriage vows were spoken.

Garlock-Weaver.

At the Court Street Methodist parsonage last evening Rev. Walter A. Hall officiated at the marriage of George W. Garlock and C. Grace Weaver, of this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Weaver, of No. 3 William street and the groom is well known in business circles. Many friends unite in wishing the young couple joy.

HALLOWEEN BOYS

BEFORE THE COURT

CHIEF HOGAN PLACES SIX UNDER ARREST.

Geo. S. Parker Swears Out the Warrant Charging Them With Destroying Property—Young Prisoners Reveal the Names of a Score of Offenders—More Arrests to Follow.

Chief of Police Hogan placed six boys under arrest this morning on a warrant sworn out by Geo. S. Parker charging them with maliciously destroying property on Halloween night at the corner of Court and Harrison streets. Those under arrest are: John Gately, Lenoard Farady, Howard Horton, Louis Sheridan, George Robinson and Ross Knox.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the offenders were brought into the municipal court, and it is doubtful if ever a more scared lot of prisoners were arraigned in a Janesville court. All responded to the call except Master Knox, and it is said that he was home hiding under the bed, so badly frightened that he found it hard work to walk.

Judge Fifield, on asking them if they were all present, was surprised to see Leonard Farady jump to his feet. Master Farady said they were not all present, and that he knew of at least two dozen boys who had not yet been arrested who were out Halloween night doing damage on all sides. He then started in to give the names of the boys, but the court called a halt, saying that their cases would probably be looked after later. The case this afternoon was then adjourned till Monday morning at 9 o'clock, and the juvenile prisoners were left in the custody of the arresting officers, whose duty it is to see that they appear next Monday.

The confession of Master Farady is liable to lead to the arrest of a score of boys. Many a lad will not sleep a wink tonight, and will be on the anxious seat for many days to come till this Halloween business is entirely cleared up. The offering of a ten dollar reward by Mayor Thoroughgood had nothing to do with the arrest of these boys, and Mr. Parker is not looking for it, but he does want revenge, or the tearing down of young trees in front of his place, which he says was done by these boys. The prisoners are all about fifteen years of age, and are the sons of prominent Third ward citizens.

Upon receiving his ballot the voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. (If it be a general election these words are to follow: The voter, if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark, X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked and having no other mark, will be counted for all the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates have been erased, or a cross mark be placed opposite the name or names of candidates in another column, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark, X, after the name of each candidate he desires to vote for.) If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum, to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed indorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability, he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter, and if he declares that he is totally blind he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are, for example, as follows:
